

Internet in next 5 Years in India

NIXI on behalf of Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology would like to conduct a study on various parameters related to Internet Industry with the prediction of Internet in next 5 years in India. The parameters may include the number of Internet customers, the average broadband speed, data consumption, growth of Digital India on various parameters, adoption of internet by various population groups like urban/rural, women/men, old/young/children, literate/illiterate etc., availability of internet in multilingual, development of contents, development of various types of industries related to internet including Hardware, Software, App development, IoT, Artificial Intelligence, Block Chain, Machine to Machine learning, status of digital economy as part of GDP, Status of cashless transactions etc.

Interested Consultants may apply with a brief note on proposed study parameters to Consultant (MM), office of CEO, NIXI on arvind@nixi.in within next 10 days (latest by 7th January, 2022, 17:00 Hrs.).

CEO, NIXI